My heart was in pieces
My eyes tired of crying
My tears ran out long ago
My body kept going despite
 My loveless soul

Then you came
From where I was not expecting
I talked to you before seeing you
I was in love during our first hug
 So tight
 So desperate
 None of us wanted to let go

Daniela
 The one that judges
 That makes me laugh
 Makes me moan, And want to be a better man

Daniela
 What have you done woman?
 What potion you put in my drink
 Body of a Goddess
 Soul of an angel
 Lips of honey

Daniela
 You came to me
 I come onto you

Daniela
 You come with a little angel
 That will bright my old days
